

caillou

Book 4-4

Storyteller: Oh, it's getting cold outside. I'm glad we're in here for our story time. Now let's see what Caillou did today. Today's story is called "Caillou Rakes the Leaves". Caillou and Rosie were having so much fun they didn't even notice that their Mommy and Daddy were watching them.

Mommy: Caillou. Rosie.

Daddy: Well, it looks like you two are having fun.

Caillou: Daddy, Mommy, come play with us.

Rosie: Daddy.

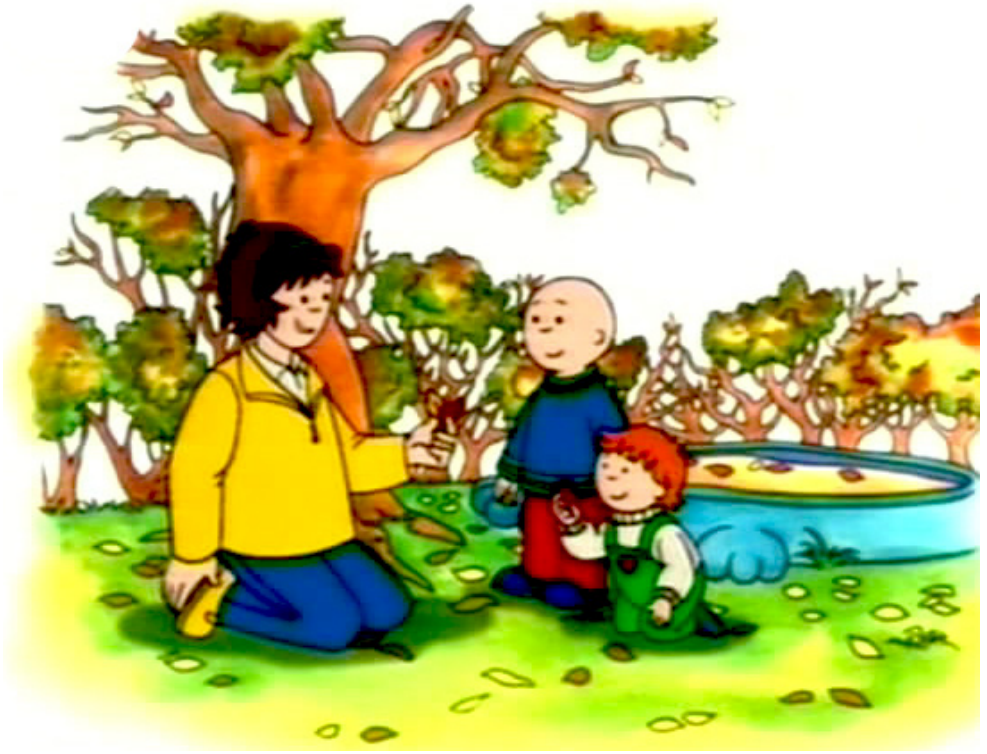

Caillou: Oh, no. Daddy, you blew the leaf.

Mommy: Show me a red leaf, Rosie. Yes. Good for you.

Caillou: Here's a yellow one, Mommy and another red one.

Mommy: Thank you, Caillou. And thank you, Rosie.

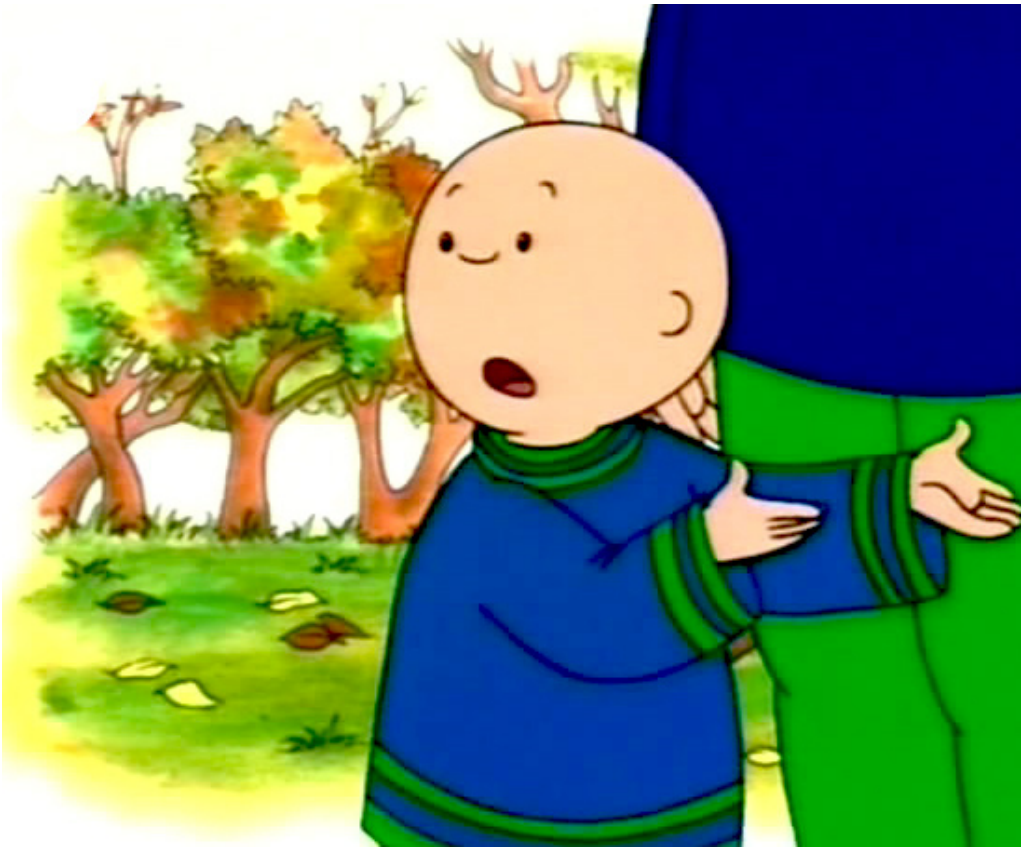

Storyteller: Caillou loved spending all day with his family, having fun in the leaves.

Mommy: I think it's time to go inside and make supper. Come along, you two.

Daddy: I'll stay and rake the leaves.

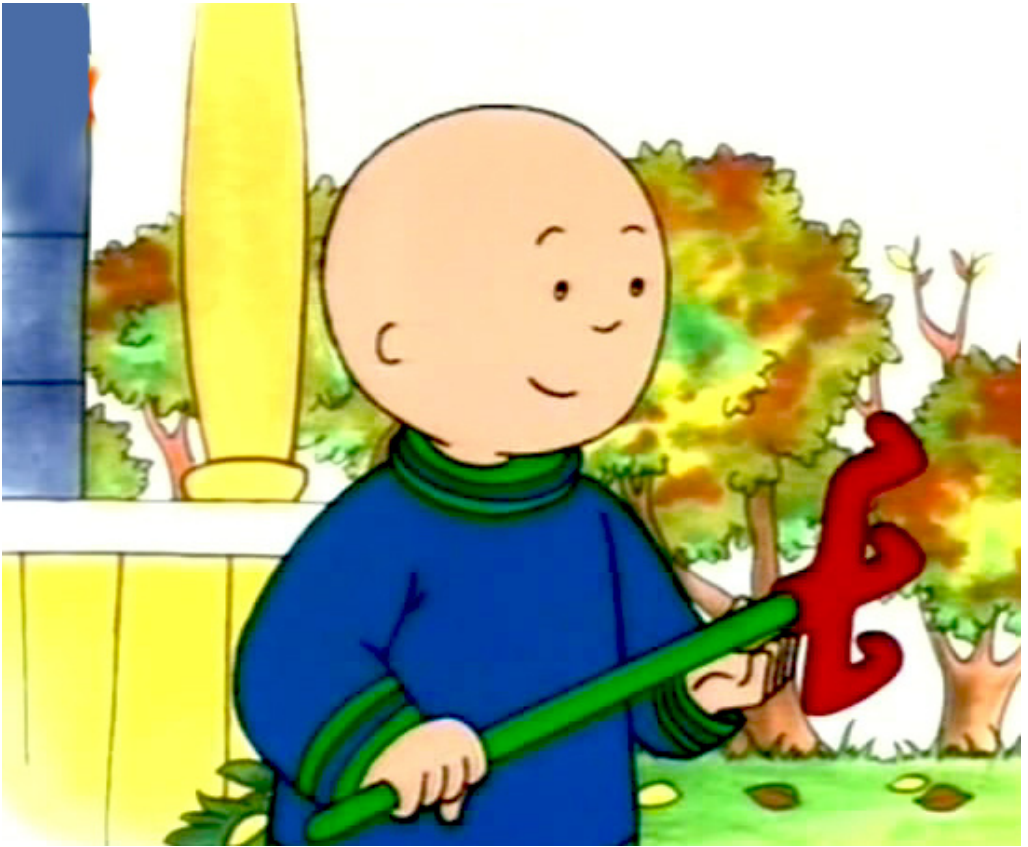

Storyteller: Caillou was enjoying himself so much he didn't want the fun to stop. He wanted this special day to last forever.

Caillou: Can I stay and help Daddy rake the leaves?

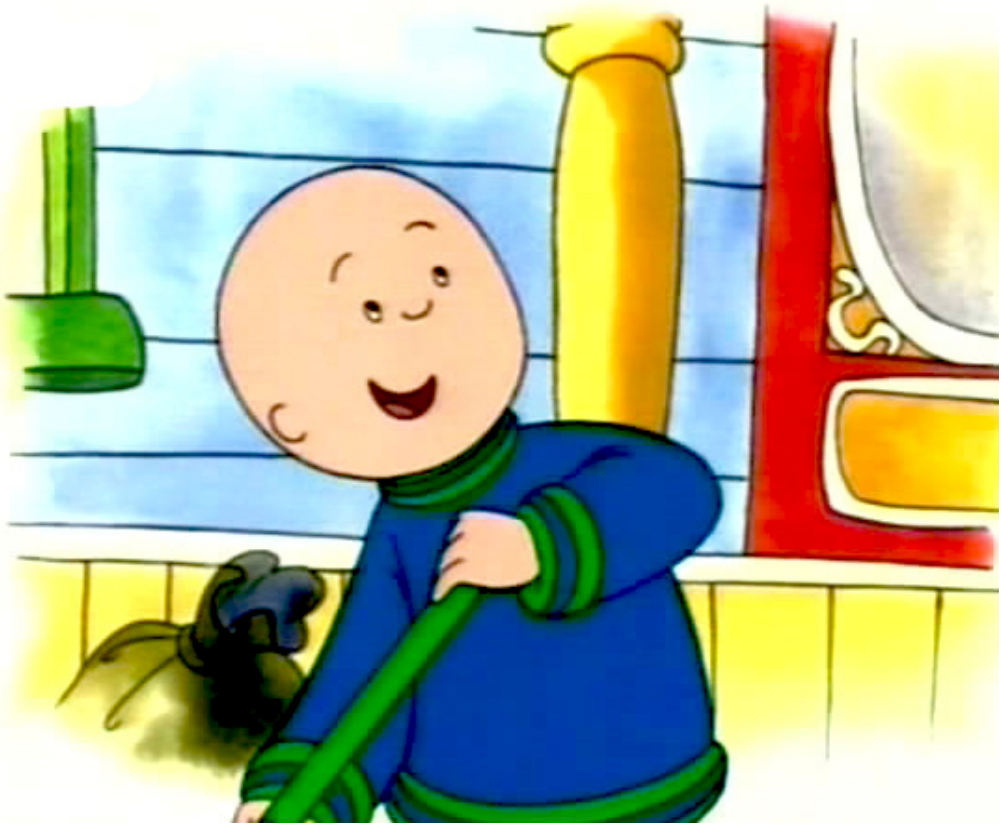

Mommy: Sure. I think that's a great idea.

Caillou: Alright!

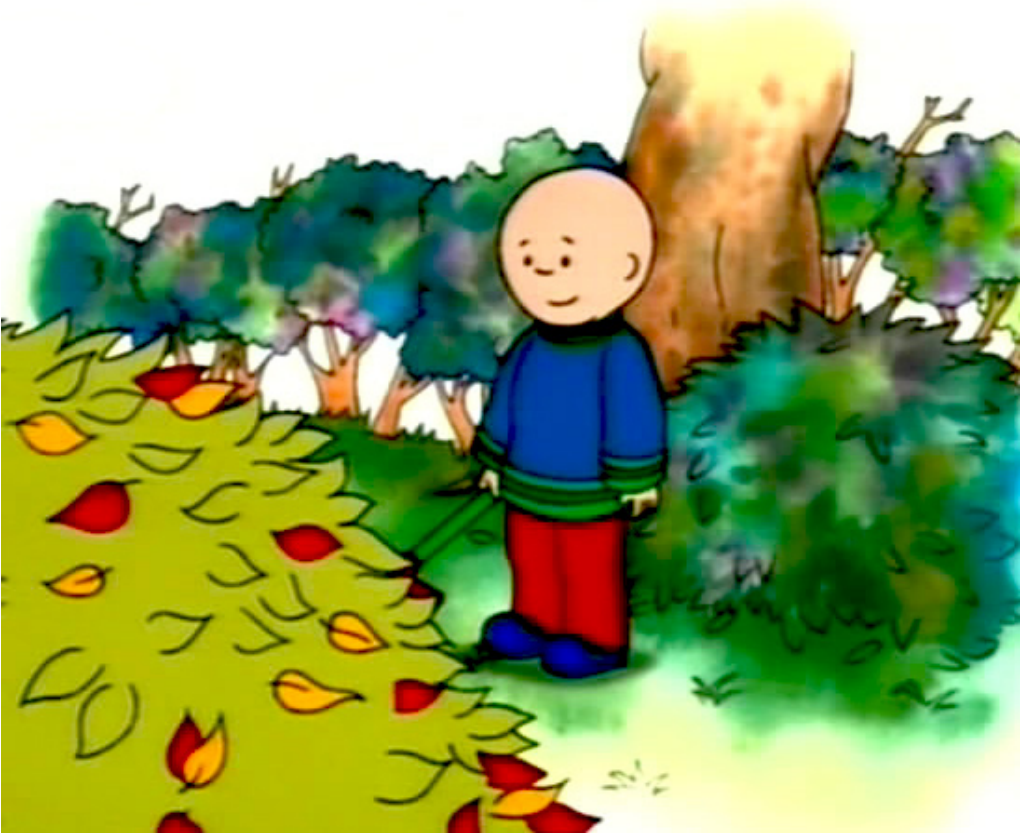

Daddy: There's an awful lot of leaves, Caillou. Do you think we can rake them all?

Caillou: Yes.

Caillou: I like raking the leaves, Daddy.

Daddy: Oh, well, it's rather hard work.
But it's fun when we do it together.

Storyteller: Caillou liked helping his Daddy. But he also liked playing. He imagined that the piles of leaves were big houses in the city.

Caillou: I want to live in this one.

Storyteller: Caillou was having so much fun pretending that the leaf piles were big houses, he didn't even notice that it was almost dark.

Caillou: Daddy. Come see my house.

Daddy: That's a great house. Did you make it all by yourself?

Caillou: Yes.

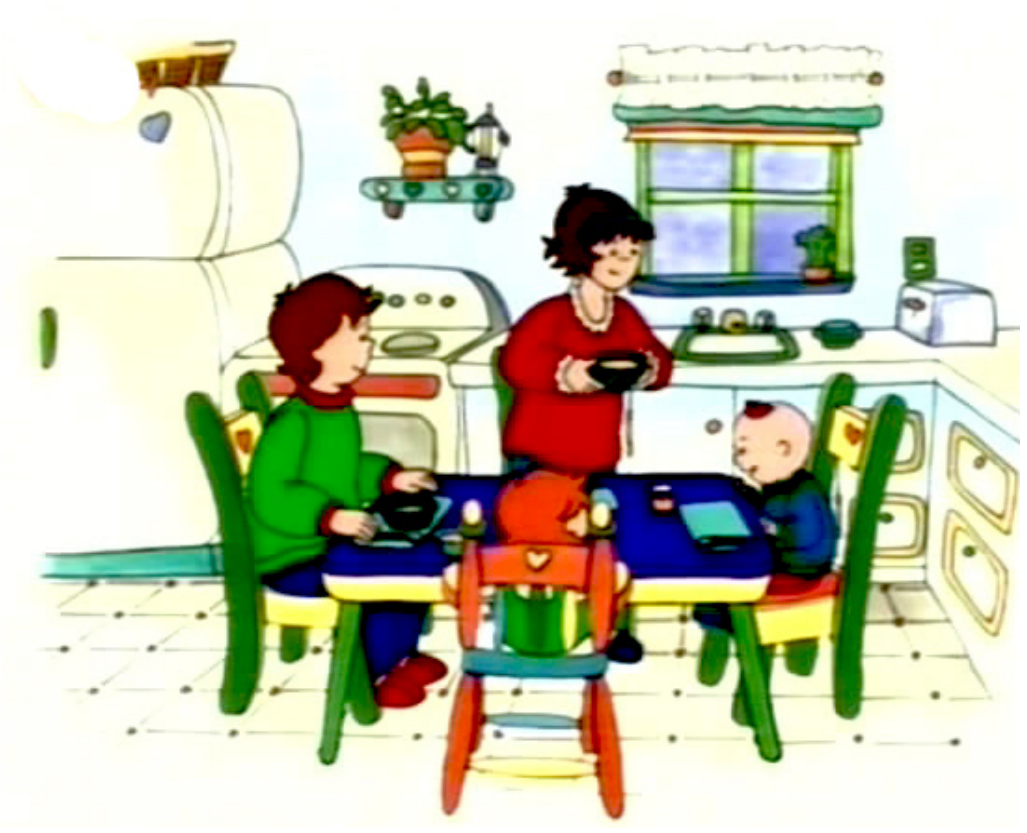

Mommy: Come on in, you two, supper's ready.

Caillou: Daddy, I had a fun day.

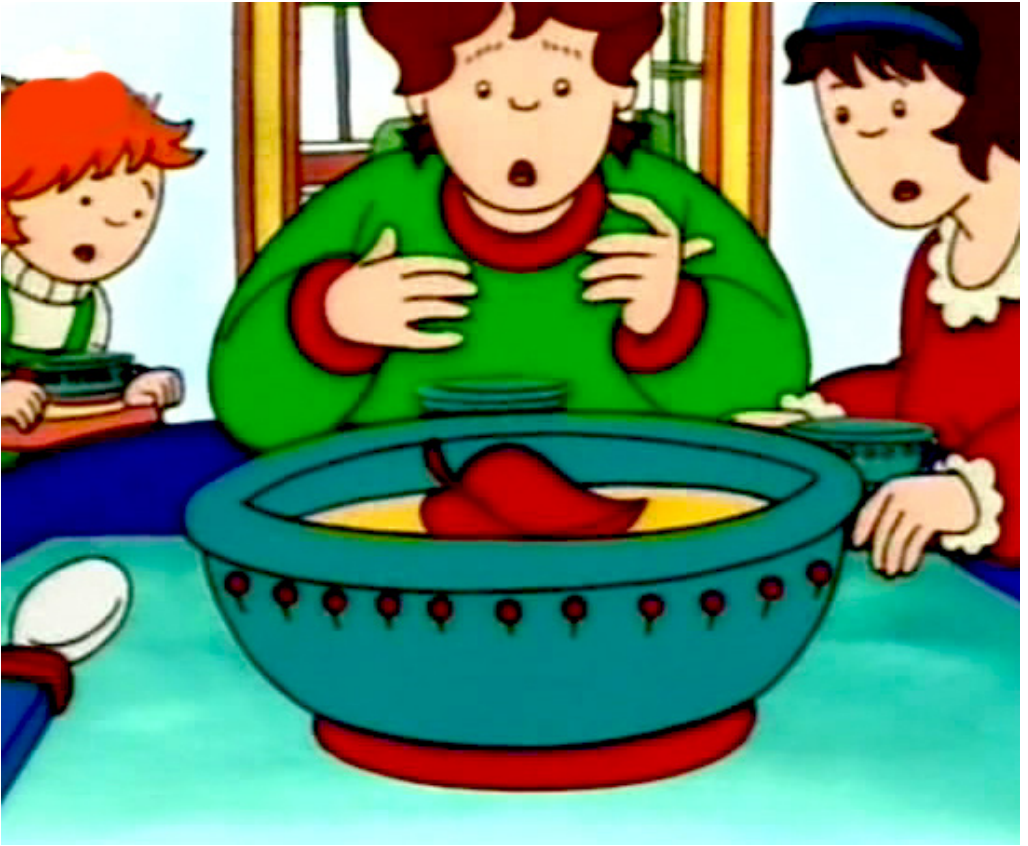

Daddy: So did I. I like it when I have my whole family all around me.

Caillou: Me, too.

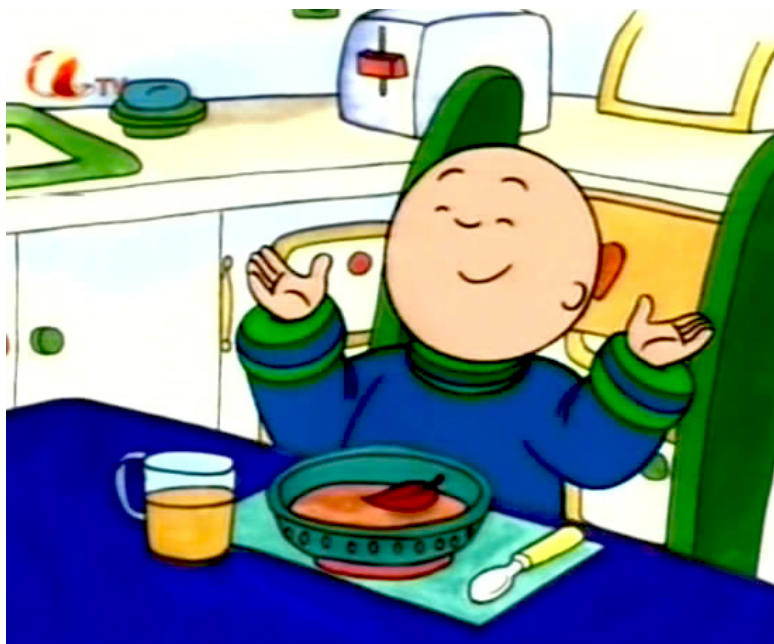

Mommy: Did you finish raking the leaves?

Caillou: Yes. There were lots and lots of them. I made a city, too.

Daddy: Caillou helped me a lot, didn't you? Hey, what's that on your head?

感谢为孩子付出时间和精力，参与制作的父母们。

如果在阅读中发现文字错误，请回复到

爸妈网 www.ebama.net

我们会及时更正更新，谢谢。